

RETURNING STUDENTS

Ballet 1, Ballet 2, Ballet 3 and Pre-Professional

Registration is for the entire year September 13, 2010 – June 11, 2011. Tuition is payable at the beginning of each trimester (September 1, December 1 & March 1). The full year tuition can be paid with a 10% discount if paid by September 1, 2010. Any other payment plan must be discussed and approved by the Neglia Conservatory staff.

Once classes have begun, tuition is non-refundable. Students who miss class or withdraw from classes before the end of the year (June 12, 2010) are still obligated for the full year's fees, whether they are paying the year in full, by the trimester or any other agreed upon payment plan.

Students are eligible for a pro-rated tuition refund only if they must withdraw from classes due to prolonged illness or severe injury, verified by a doctor's letter.

Tuition is not deducted or refunded due to missed classes, vacations, school musicals, and or sports season.

Creative Movement & Pre-Ballet

Students who miss class or withdraw from classes before November 30, 2010 will be liable only for the first trimester tuition. Students who withdraw from classes after November 30, 2010 will be obligated for the full year's fees whether they are paying the year-in-full, by the trimester or any other agreed upon payment plan.

Tuition is not deducted or refunded due to missed classes, vacations, school musicals, and or sports season.

NEW STUDENTS

Students who miss class or withdraw from classes before November 30, 2010 will be liable only for the first trimester tuition. Students who withdraw from classes after November 30, 2010 will be obligated for the full year's fees whether they are paying the year-in-full, by the trimester or any other agreed upon payment plan.

Tuition is not deducted or refunded due to missed classes, vacations, school musicals, and or sports season.

ALL STUDENTS

Students with outstanding accounts will not be admitted to class. There is a $30 fee for all returned checks.

Late fees for tuition will be strictly enforced. Please get your tuition in on time, if you are paying in person you must stop in before the due date regardless of the day your child's class falls on. If you are paying by mail please allow enough time for the payment to reach us by the payment due date.

To avoid late payments you have the option of having tuition automatically charged to a credit card or sending post-dated checks. In either case, you will be sent a reminder notice before any charges are made or checks deposited.

NCB reserves the right to discontinue any class for insufficient enrollment. In this case, the tuition for the remaining classes will be refunded.

Tuition is not deducted or refunded due to missed classes, vacations, school musicals, and or sports season.

Financial Aid: Neglia Conservatory of Ballet is committed to providing financial help to families of qualified students who otherwise could not attend our school. Please call Wendy in the office to get an application form.
